5. (U) Details: Monthly Incidents by Region

(U) This section lists reports of active violence against shipping, credible threats to shipping, or the potential for a situation to develop into a direct threat to shipping over the last 30 days. Every effort is made to ensure that incidents are not double-counted. In the event double-counting is detected, or an incident is later found to be different than initially reported, an explanation of the cancellation of the inaccurate report will be made in at least one message prior to dropping the erroneous report.

A. (U) NORTH AMERICA:

1. (U) MEXICO: On 24 March, the Navy reported the seizure of six suitcases containing more than 400 kg of cocaine at Veracruz port. No further details were provided, including whether any arrests were made. (www.pvilttd.com/news-insight)

2. (U) MEXICO: On 21 March, the Navy released a statement saying that an operation involving two boats led to the seizure of almost one ton of cocaine off the coast of Acapulco. Fourteen people, including six Ecuadoreans and one Colombian, were arrested in the operation. (www.pvilttd.com/news-insight)

3. (U) MEXICO: On 1 March, the U.S. embassy in Mexico issued a travel alert for a popular tourist destination in southeast Mexico. This came a little more than a week after an explosion on a ferry in Playa del Carmen injured more than 20 people, some of them U.S. citizens. The alert was issued the same day as another explosive device was found on another ferry owned by the same company in Cozumel, another tourist hub in the area. According to the alert, which advised U.S. travelers to exercise caution, purchase travel and medical-evacuation insurance, and contact the nearest embassy or consulate for assistance. B. (U) CENTRAL AMERICA - CARIBBEAN - SOUTH AMERICA:

1. (U) VENEZUELA: On 24 March, robbers armed with guns boarded a tanker anchored near position 10:17N - 064:42W, Puerto La Cruz Anchorage. Duty crewman on routine rounds noticed the robbers on the forecastle deck and raised the alarm. Seeing the alerted crew, two robbers were seen escaping. On conducting a search, the forecastle store padlock was reported broken and ship's properties stolen. Port Control notified via VHF. The Coast Guard later dispatched a vessel to search the anchorage waters around the vessel. (IMB)

2. (U) PUERTO RICO: On 19 March, customs officials detained a citizen of the Dominican Republic on board a boat transporting 1,441 kilograms of cocaine along the northern coast of Puerto Rico, coming from the Dominican Republic. The ship was going to the municipality of Vega Alta in Puerto Rico. (www.maritimeherald.com)

3. (U) ST. LUCIA: Between 11 and 13 March, three dinghies and outboard motors were stolen from separate sailing yachts anchored in Rodney Bay. The dinghies were recovered but the motors were not. (www.safetyandsecuritynet.org)

4. (U) PERU: On 20 March, Peruvian police seized 1,500 kilograms of cocaine that were to be placed in a container in the port of Callao to be sent to Europe, a police chief said. "We have seized more than a ton and a half of cocaine that was destined for Europe," a senior police spokesman told reporters. The cocaine was discovered in a truck before being placed in a container that was to be loaded onto a ship to Europe, according to police. The spokesman indicated that seven members of the band "Los Ninjas" were captured in this operation. "We thought it was a myth, but this band existed, they are very agile young people dressed in black moved from container to container" to introduce the drug, he explained. (www.maritimeherald.com)

5. (U) COSTA RICA: On 7 March, a low-profile narco-submarine, 18 meters long and powered by three Yamaha 75 HP

two-stroke engines, was abandoned by cocaine traffickers near Punta Burica in the South Pacific, very close to Panamanian coasts. The submersible was spotted by a private boater who notified the authorities. A patrol boat of the National Service of Guarcacostas of Costa Rica went towards the place and found the boat. The semi-submersible was flooded, a situation that made towing difficult because it was very heavy. Even so, the Coast Guard officers towed her to the main dock of Golfito. Officials of the Drug Control Police (PCD) of Costa Rica and personnel of the Public Ministry proceeded to carry out an inspection but no traces of narcotics were found. (www.maritimeherald.com)

6. (U) COLOMBIA: On 6 March, authorities seized 5.2 metric tons of cocaine in a shipment of bananas in a port in the Uraba region after a tip from the Police. The bananas were meant to be shipped to Europe. (www.colombiareports.com)

7. (U) GRENADA: On 1 March, an unlocked dinghy at the Secret Harbor dock was stolen from an anchored sailing yacht. Incident reported to the police and Coast Guard. Witnesses report seeing the dinghy being towed out of the bay. (www.safetyandsecuritynet.org)

8. (U) SAINT VINCENT AND THE GRENADINES: On 1 February, a charter yacht anchored in Canouan Charlestown Bay was boarded overnight while everyone was sleeping. The catamaran was not locked. The victims found that cash, personal electronics and clothing had been stolen from inside the yacht. (www.safetyandsecuritynet.org)

9. (U) BRAZIL: On 3 March, police seized 907 kilograms of cocaine at the port of Rio de Janeiro. The drugs were wrapped in separate packets and hidden in duffel bags distributed between two containers offloaded at the port. Authorities found the cocaine during an operation to find guns, ammunition and drugs bound for organized crime groups in Rio de Janeiro state. (www.news.com.au/world)

10. (U) COLOMBIA: On 27 February, a dingy outboard engine and fuel tank were stolen from a sailing yacht anchored in Cartagena. (www.safetyandsecuritynet.org)

11. (U) ST LUCIA: On 26 February, a cable locked dinghy was stolen from a sailing yacht anchored at Rodney Bay Gros Islet. Fisherman recovered it floating 3 miles offshore and it was returned to the owner. Some minor damage was noted. Apparently the thief had been unable to defeat the engine lock and left behind an extra oar. (www.safetyandsecuritynet.org)

12. (U) ST LUCIA: On 26 February, a cable locked dinghy was stolen from a sailing yacht anchored at Rodney Bay Gros Islet. At that same time, they saw the police motor past with the dinghy in tow. They signaled the police, who came over, and after establishing ownership, the police took a report. The police indicated the dinghy had been found on the beach with some inflatable devices that had apparently been used to get to the yacht. (www.safetyandsecuritynet.org)

C. (U) ATLANTIC OCEAN AREA: No current incidents to report.

D. (U) NORTHERN EUROPE - BALTIC:

1. (U) BELGIUM: On 26 February, police arrested six people after the Belgian authorities discovered 4,500 kilograms of cocaine in a container at the port of Antwerp. The cocaine was hidden in a banana shipment that came from Colombia. The Belgian authorities removed the drugs from the container and sent it on to its delivery address. The Dutch police took over when that delivery address turned out to be in Oss. The suspects - four men and two women - were arrested when they came to search the container. (www.nltimes.nl)

E. (U) MEDITERRANEAN - BLACK SEA:

and Maritime Crime

1. (U) SPAIN: On 22 March, Spanish Civil Guard troops seized two tons of hashish from two boats in the Guadalmezi coastal zone near Algeciras. (www.en.yabiladi.com)

2. (U) LIBYA: On 13 March, Libya's naval forces seized a Togo-flagged fuel tanker LAMAR, and arrested its Greek crew on suspicion they planned to smuggle oil out of that country, a spokesman for the forces said. It was captured about 8 miles off Abu Kamash town, near the border with Tunisia. (www.marinelink.com/news)

3. (U) ITALY: On 18 March, an Italian court seized the rescue ship, OPEN ARMS, on charges that its crew helped illegal immigration by rescuing more than 200 migrants from boats before Libya's Coast Guard could move in to take them back to Africa. A day after the ship arrived in the Sicilian port of Pozzallo, a court on the island ordered the ship's seizure on suspicion that three Proactiva members, including the captain of the ship, were operating it as part of a criminal association that favored illegal immigration. (Reuters; www.fleetmon.com)

4. (U) GREECE: On 4 March, Greece's Coast Guard seized 1.3 tons of cannabis, hidden aboard a fishing vessel intercepted off the southern island of Crete. The drug bust was the result of a three-day operation. Greek authorities had been informed by French Customs that a suspect ship was sailing to the southeast of the island. The operation involved four coast guard patrol vessels and two planes, one belonging to Frontex, the European border and coast guard agency. The suspect fishing boat, CELINE STAR, was spotted by the Frontex aircraft about 60 nautical miles southeast off Crete. The fishing boat, which had sailed from Syria towards an undisclosed European port, attempted to flee unsuccessfully and was escorted to the port of Ierapetra in Crete. Its captain and four-member crew were arrested, the Greek Coast Guard said. (www.marinelink.com/news)

5. (U) GIBRALTAR: On 27 February, HM Customs Marine Section assisted by Gibraltar Defense police officers seized approximately 150 cartons of smuggled cigarettes and arrested a Spanish national at Western Beach. The individual was arrested when spotted trying to swim across the harbor back to Spain pushing two large bags containing the cigarettes. (www.euroweeklynews.com/news)

(U) This appendix provides contact information for the author of the WTS as well as other entities that can be contacted with maritime crime reports. It also lists other resources where the WTS is posted and where piracy and maritime crime incident information can be found.

(U) Contact

(U) Originator of this WTS report requests consumer feedback. Originator will incorporate all anti-shipping events and violence against the maritime industry into this weekly message where appropriate. To aid in our reporting, please add the Office of Naval Intelligence (ONI) to your normal corporate and organizational reporting requirements. The 24-hour watch can be reached at +1 (301) 669-4053.

(U) Other Resources

(U) This Worldwide Threat to Shipping Report is posted at the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency's Maritime Safety site: <http://msi.nga.mil/NGAPortal/MSI.portal>. The International Maritime Bureau (IMB) also publishes a live piracy report based on reporting from the IMB Piracy Reporting Centre in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, listing all piracy and armed robbery incidents in the last ten days: <http://www.icc-ccs.org/>. The PAWW and WTS Reports are posted weekly on the ONI Intel Portal: http://www.oni.navy.mil/Intelligence_Community/piracy.htm.

7. (U) Appendix B: Terminology and References

(U) This appendix is provided to promote consistent use of accurate terms of reference in reporting and also identifies those references that were used to gather the information contained in this report. ONI welcomes comment and suggestions for addition or amendment.

(U) Terminology

(U) In order to promote consistent use of accurate terms of reference, the following have been adopted to describe the range of criminal anti-shipping activity and impediments to safe navigation in our worldwide reporting and analysis. Please note that these terms relate to observable activity and are independent of target vessel status and exclude actions by governmental powers in lawful pursuit of their authorities:

(U) Attempted Boarding – Close approach or hull-to-hull contact with report that boarding paraphernalia were employed or visible in the approaching boat.

(U) Blocking – Hampering safe navigation, docking, or undocking of a vessel as a means of protest.

(U) Boarding – Unauthorized boarding of a vessel by persons not part of its complement without successfully taking control of the vessel.

(U) Fired Upon – Weapons discharged at or toward a vessel.

(U) Hijacking – Unauthorized seizure and retention of a vessel by persons not part of its complement.

(U) Kidnapping – Unauthorized forcible removal of persons belonging to the vessel from it.

(U) Robbery – Theft from a vessel or from persons aboard the vessel.

(U) Suspicious Approach – All other unexplained activity in close proximity of an unknown vessel.
