JOB SUMMARY

The Brooks Center for Maritime Engagement (BCME) is looking for a GG-0132-15 professional to serve as Strategic Requirements Integrator. The ideal candidate will have a deep understanding of U.S. Navy vision, mission, strategy and operational culture; with an understanding of Navy intelligence information requirements as well as demonstrated knowledge of Navy, DoD and the Intelligence Community (IC) architecture. The incumbent will serve as a senior advisor to leadership ISO operations and strategic planning. The individual will provide guidance related to the integration and validation of Navy intelligence requirements, national security issues, and current events as related to Human and Open Source Intelligence Collection Activities

Specific Duties

- Responsible for Executive Engagement and the strategic integration and direction of the organization with regard to intelligence and collection requirements in order to meet the Service and Fleets highest priority collection needs.
- Conducts continuing analysis of the efficiency and effectiveness of the organization's activities. Interprets complex strategy and policy issues by applying expert knowledge of requirements integration, collections management, and strategy.
- Maintains awareness of validated Navy intelligence requirements, current events in assigned areas of responsibility, and national security issues that impact enterprise operations and ensures collections priorities reflect the CNO's, Command's, and customer's needs.
- Identifies intelligence integration gaps, synchronizes collection requirements and feedback mechanisms to fill gaps, and develops analytical tools and methodologies to document gaps and feedback processes while developing channels and formats to best communicate command efforts and activities to external stakeholders.
- Represents and advocates for the commands' positions, aligned with issues in his/her area(s) of expertise and develops communication strategies to convey successes, inform resourcing discussions, and increase stakeholder engagement.
- Establishes and maintains strategic partnerships with personnel in other intelligence centers, services, and agencies to align and integrate the commands' production requirements and evaluations cycle.
