5. (U) Details: Monthly Incidents by Region

(U) This section lists reports of active violence against shipping, credible threats to shipping, or the potential for a situation to develop into a direct threat to shipping over the last 30 days. Every effort is made to ensure that incidents are not double-counted. In the event double-counting is detected, or an incident is later found to be different than initially reported, an explanation of the cancellation of the inaccurate report will be made in at least one message prior to dropping the erroneous report.

A. (U) NORTH AMERICA: No current incidents to report.

B. (U) CENTRAL AMERICA - CARIBBEAN - SOUTH AMERICA:

1. (U) BONAIRE: On 14 June, a dinghy locked to the Fisherman's Pier was searched and the fuel line disconnected. The tank had been moved but remained, it was locked to the dinghy, preventing the theft. (www.safetyandsecuritynet.org)

2. (U) BONAIRE: On 14 June, after sunset, the not locked fuel tank was stolen from a dinghy at the Dive Friends Pier. (www.safetyandsecuritynet.org)

3. (U) SAINT VINCENT AND THE GRENADINES: On 12 June, an unlocked dinghy and outboard motor was stolen from the jetty in Mayreau Saline Bay while owners were ashore for the evening. A police report was made. (www.safetyandsecuritynet.org)

4. (U) ST LUCIA: On 6 June, a robber stole an in-the-water dinghy from a sailing yacht anchored in Rodney Bay. (www.safetyandsecuritynet.org)

5. (U) COSTA RICA: On 6 June, authorities announced that 300 kilograms of cocaine had been found hidden in the ventilation shaft of a shipping container aboard Italy-flagged ship MN CALA PALMA in the port of Moin. (www.maritimeherald.com)

6. (U) SAINT VINCENT AND THE GRENADINES: On 17 May, a robber boarded an unlocked but closed up monohull anchored in Canouan Charlestown Bay while owners were ashore. They returned to find that only cash had been stolen, other valuable items were left behind. No police report was made. (www.safetyandsecuritynet.org)

7. (U) COLOMBIA: On 3 May, four men armed with knives and machetes boarded an anchored sailing yacht in Cartagena harbor. They showed their weapons, boarded, and quickly tied up the 2 men, and sent the woman below to collect valuables, consisting of cash, smartphones, a tablet, a laptop, chargers and a camera. They appeared to be high and asked for drugs, receiving none. They departed after about 30 minutes. No one was injured. After making a VHF call to the control tower to report the armed robbery, the crew moved close to the Club Nautico marina docks where there is a security patrol. A report was made the next day on the local VHF net. (www.safetyandsecuritynet.org)

8. (U) SINT MAARTEN: On 8 June, a robber boarded an unlocked catamaran berthed at Blue Pearl Marina. The robber stole the dinghy and outboard, cellphones and laptop. The dinghy/outboard was found the next day, hidden nearby. (www.safetyandsecuritynet.org)

9. (U) SAINT VINCENT AND THE GRENADINES: On 3 June, one robber boarded a catamaran anchored in South Glossy Bay. The owners were awoken when the robber tried to pry open a locked deck hatch. The thief, once discovered, ran forward and jumped overboard and swam away. Minor damage, but nothing taken. (www.safetyandsecuritynet.org)

10. (U) PERU: On 1 June, a Peruvian fishing vessel flying a Belize flag, F/V DAMANZAIHAO, described as the world's largest fish factory vessel, was seized by the Ministry of Environment for reported acts of Illegal, Unreported and Unregulated (IUU) fishing. The vessel, which is capable of processing approximately 547,000 tons of fish per year, faced multi-million dollar penalties in 2016 for proven IUU violations. The ship is being held in Chimbote. The ship requested permission to leave port from Peru twice, however, a non-profit marine conservation group had written to the Peruvian government imploring it to take measures against the vessel which is accused of marine pollution in addition to IUU violations. (www.breakingbelizenews.com; www.amandala.com.bz)

11. (U) PERU: On 30 May, police seized 1,150 kilograms of cocaine at Paita port. The narcotics, which were hidden in a shipment of frozen fish, were destined for Spain. Eight Peruvians and four Colombians were arrested in connection with the seizure. (www.pvilt.com)

12. (U) VENEZUELA: On 23 May, a white skiff with three robbers onboard came alongside an anchored product tanker near position 10:11N - 064:47W, Puerto Jose Anchorage. They tried to board the tanker via the poop deck. Duty crewman spotted the robbers and raised the alarm resulting in the robbers aborting the attempted boarding and moving away. (IMB)

C. (U) ATLANTIC OCEAN AREA: No current incidents to report.

D. (U) NORTHERN EUROPE - BALTIC:

1. (U) ENGLAND: On 30 May, a man from Romania was arrested for human smuggling after authorities in the Port of Dover found a 16-year-old Vietnamese boy inside a suitcase in the trunk of the man's car. The suitcase was discovered when the car was searched at the inbound search area of the port, for vehicles arriving in the UK from France on a ferry. (www.kentlive.news)

E. (U) MEDITERRANEAN - BLACK SEA:

1. (U) LIBYA: On 10 June, Libyan Coast Guard units intercepted 152 African and Arab migrants off the northwestern towns of Zuwara and Garabulli, local media reported. The coast guard said that the migrants were aboard two sinking rubber dinghies when they were rescued. The migrants were taken to Tripoli. (www.pvilt.com)

2. (U) LIBYA: Between 9 and 10 June, the migrant rescue ship AQUARIUS rescued 629 migrants during six different operations. The ship is en route Valencia, Spain. (www.fleetmon.com)

3. (U) BULGARIA: On 7 June, authorities in the Port of Varna intercepted 16.2 tons of precursor chemicals used in the production of synthetic drugs. Two Dutch nationals were arrested. (www.focus-fen.net)

4. (U) ITALY: On 7 June, Italy's Guardia di Finanza (GDF) finance police intercepted a Dutch fishing boat 130 nm southeast of Sicily after tracking the vessel from the air for two days, a statement said, arresting all nine members of the vessel's crew. A search of the vessel turned up 10 tons of hashish. Two of the detained, including the first officer, have been identified as members of a "dangerous" Maltese criminal organization, the authorities said. They had been arrested in Spain last summer in a joint operation between the GDF and Spanish police for trafficking 6,000 cases of contraband cigarettes. (www.thelocal.it)

5. (U) ITALY: On 4 June, authorities in Portofino arrested a 50-year old woman from England for the hijacking of a yacht owned by a local boat rental company. Reportedly, the woman found the keys to start the yacht and was on the way out of the harbor when a harbor worker managed to jump aboard in time, grabbing the keys from the ignition and steering the vessel back to its mooring. He then called the port authority and the local Carabinieri paramilitary police, who arrested her. A local newspaper dubbed her "the Portofino pirate". (www.telegraph.co.uk)

6. (U) ALGERIA: On 29 May, authorities intercepted the container ship VEGA MERCURY using an Algerian Navy ship and helicopter, off Oran. Algerian authorities were alerted by Spanish authorities about a probable drug shipment onboard. More than 700 kilograms of cocaine were found in boxes marked as "halal meat." Fourteen people were arrested, including 3 from the ship's crew. (www.fleetmon.com)

7. (U) SPAIN: On 21 May, the Spanish Civil Guards confirmed the seizure of over 900 kilos of cocaine and 10 arrests in an operation centered on the port city of Algeciras in the southwest of the country. A Civil Guard statement explained the cocaine had come from South America hidden in a cargo of fruit. (www.menafn.com)

1. (U) SINGAPORE: On 18 June, police arrested nine men for their suspected involvement in an illegal sale of marine gas oil. The Police Coast Guard acted on a tip-off that a foreign-registered tugboat and a Singapore-registered vessel were involved in the illegal transaction at sea off Selat Puh Anchorage. The Singapore-registered vessel is suspected of misappropriating 400 liters of marine gas oil. (www.pvilt.com)

2. (U) BANGLADESH: On 2 June, the Bangladesh Coast Guard (BCG) rescued 18 fishermen abducted from the Nalian area in the Sundarbans. Four teams of the BCG launched a drive in the area after receiving information that the fishermen were abducted, said BCG Operation Officer Lt Abdullah Al Mahmud. Alerted to the presence of the BCG teams, the bandits fled the spot, leaving behind the victims, he said, adding that they rescued them along with 11 trawlers. The gang abducted the fishermen earlier that day while they were fishing in the area, Mahmud said. (www.dhakatribune.com)
3. (U) MALAYSIA: On 1 June, 14 robbers boarded tanker LEE BO, near Baharu, north of Singapore. The robbers, armed with machetes, robbed the crew of cash and valuables, slightly injuring 2 of the 12 crew. They then moved to another tanker nearby, M/T Bright, where they were apprehended by the Malaysian Maritime Enforcement Agency (MMEA) team, which boarded the tanker via helicopter. Two others were arrested later, reportedly the gang's leaders. (www.fleetmon.com)
4. (U) MALAYSIA: On 31 May, fourteen intruders boarded and attempted to rob a Mongolia-flagged oil tanker while anchored in position 34 nm east of Mersing, Malaysia. After discovering that the vessel was not loaded, the pirates took the personal belongings of the crew and fled via another stolen vessel. Malaysia Maritime Enforcement Agency Special Forces were able to track and successfully apprehend all the pirates who were armed with knives and machetes; two crew members were injured during the attack. (www.pvilttd.com)
5. (U) INDONESIA: On 30 May, an unknown number of robbers boarded a Netherlands-flagged heavy load carrier anchored near position 01:06N - 104:11E, 16 nm northeast of Tanjung Berakit, Pulau Bintan. The ship's boatswain discovered the padlock of the paint store was broken and the door left open. Further investigation revealed that the padlocks of the garbage room, oxygen locker, acetylene locker and the bunker station were also broken and the doors were left open. Nothing was missing. (www.pvilttd.com)
6. (U) MALAYSIA: On 23 May, officers with the Kedah-Perlis Malaysian Maritime Enforcement Agency office seized eight bags containing 410 kilograms of methamphetamines from the country's territorial waters near the Malaysia-Thailand border. (www.malaymail.com)
7. (U) MALAYSIA: On 22 May, authorities made the country's largest ever seizure of methamphetamines, officials said, finding nearly 1.2 tons of the drug disguised as tea in a shipment from Myanmar. Six suspects were arrested. The bust comes as Southeast Asia reports a flood of the stimulant throughout the region. Indonesia and Thailand have also made record seizures of the drug this year. A total of 1,187 kg of the drug was shipped in a container from Yangon, Myanmar, to Port Klang. (www.businessinsider.com)

J. (U) NORTHEAST ASIA:

1. (U) HONG KONG: On 4 June, customs officials seized about 140 kilograms of suspected scheduled dried seahorses and 220 kilograms of dried shark fins from a shipping container at the Kwai Chung Customs House Cargo Examination Compound. Through risk assessment, customs officers inspected the 20-foot container declared to contain fish maw arriving in Hong Kong from Indonesia, finding the contraband. (www.7thspace.com)

2. (U) HONG KONG: On 4 June, authorities seized 7,000 kilograms of suspected smuggled mercury from a shipping container at the Kwai Chung Cargo Examination Compound. Through risk assessment, customs officers inspected a 40-foot container declared to contain plastic material arriving from Indonesia. Upon inspection, customs officers found the suspected smuggled mercury in the container. (www.7thspace.com)

3. (U) HONG KONG: On 30 May, customs officers discovered nearly six tons of endangered rosewood in a shipment of gypsum boards from Malaysia. The manifest for the shipping container, which arrived from Port Klang, west of Kuala Lumpur, on May 30, said it held 16 piles of gypsum boards, according to the Customs and Excise Department. "The container was selected for inspection because it contained gypsum boards which are rarely shipped from Malaysia," Assistant Superintendent Joy Wong Sek-yan of Customs' Ports Control Group said. (www.sg.news.yahoo.com)

4. (U) TAIWAN: On 1 June, officials from Taiwan and Australia announced that more than 20 million illicit cigarettes were seized after a joint operation between the Australian Border Force (ABF) and the Taiwan Customs Administration. In early May, the ABF Tobacco Strike Team (TST) identified two cargo containers of interest being shipped from Vietnam to Taiwan that were bound for Australia. Investigations by the TST and Taiwan Customs revealed the containers contained 20,100,000 illicit cigarettes. The containers were unloaded and the cigarettes were seized by Taiwan Customs. ABF Assistant Commissioner Enforcement Command, Sharon Huey, said the operation would have significant disruption effects for the illicit tobacco market in Australia. (www.thecre.com)

5. (U) TAIWAN: On 28 May, the Coast Guard Administration (CGA) busted a tobacco smuggling operation in Pingtung County and seized and seized a large consignment of smuggled cigarettes. In a statement, the CGA said officers from its southern office seized 160,000 packs of untaxed cigarettes from a Donggang-registered fishing boat CHANG SHENG and arrested five crew members, including the captain. (www.focustaiwan.tw)

6. (U) EAST CHINA SEA: On 24 May, Japan's Foreign Ministry announced that a Japan Maritime Self-Defense Force ship spotted a North Korean tanker and another tanker with a Korean name apparently transferring fuel on the open seas in violation of U.N. sanctions. The ministry said in a statement that the two vessels are suspected of conducting offshore ship-to-ship transfers banned under U.N. Security Council resolutions. It said Japan has informed the Security Council of the sighting of North Korean tanker SAM JONG 2 alongside a ship of unknown nationality with a Korean name. The two ships were spotted east of Shanghai. The U.N. has blacklisted SAM JONG 2. U.N. sanctions on North Korea limit energy trade and ban offshore transfers of goods to North Korean ships. (Associated Press; www.foxnews.com)

K. (U) AUSTRALIA - NEW ZEALAND – PACIFIC OCEAN AREA: No current incidents to report.

7. (U) Appendix B: Terminology and References

(U) This appendix is provided to promote consistent use of accurate terms of reference in reporting and also identifies those references that were used to gather the information contained in this report. ONI welcomes comment and suggestions for addition or amendment.

(U) Terminology

(U) In order to promote consistent use of accurate terms of reference, the following have been adopted to describe the range of criminal anti-shipping activity and impediments to safe navigation in our worldwide reporting and analysis. Please note that these terms relate to observable activity and are independent of target vessel status and exclude actions by governmental powers in lawful pursuit of their authorities:

(U) Attempted Boarding – Close approach or hull-to-hull contact with report that boarding paraphernalia were employed or visible in the approaching boat.

(U) Blocking – Hampering safe navigation, docking, or undocking of a vessel as a means of protest.

(U) Boarding – Unauthorized boarding of a vessel by persons not part of its complement without successfully taking control of the vessel.

(U) Fired Upon – Weapons discharged at or toward a vessel.

(U) Hijacking – Unauthorized seizure and retention of a vessel by persons not part of its complement.

(U) Kidnapping – Unauthorized forcible removal of persons belonging to the vessel from it.

(U) Robbery – Theft from a vessel or from persons aboard the vessel.

(U) Suspicious Approach – All other unexplained activity in close proximity of an unknown vessel.
