NAVAL INTELLIGENCE

(U) Monthly Incidents by Region

(U) This section lists reports of active violence against shipping, credible threats to shipping, or the potential for a situation to develop into a direct threat to shipping over the past 30 days. Every effort is made to ensure that incidents are not double-counted. In the event that double-counting is detected, or an incident is later found to be different than initially reported, an explanation of the cancellation of the inaccurate report will be made in at least one message prior to dropping the erroneous report.

(U) NORTH AMERICA

(U) No current incidents to report.

(U) CENTRAL AMERICA – CARIBBEAN – SOUTH AMERICA

(U) No current incidents to report.

(U) ATLANTIC OCEAN AREA

(U) No current incidents to report.

(U) NORTHERN EUROPE – BALTIC

1. (U) NIGERIA: On 28 November at 0440 local time, as many as 20 robbers armed with knives boarded a container ship while berthed at Tin Can Port, Lagos, near position 06:25N – 003:21E. After restraining a duty crew person, a stevedore, and the bosun, the perpetrators stole items of cargo from containers onboard. The perpetrators escaped after being spotted by a duty watchman. The incident was reported to the port authorities. (IMB; Clearwater Dynamics; MDAT-GoG)
2. (U) GUINEA: On 25 November at 1615 UTC, a small boat approached and followed a Palau-flagged cargo vessel while underway approximately 100 NM southwest of Port Kamsar, near position 10:05N – 016:12W. The master reported that the small boat was green in color and had as many as eight people onboard. The boat, which came to within 1.5 NM of the cargo vessel, followed the vessel for approximately one and a half hours before changing course. Following the incident, the crew were reported safe and the vessel proceeded to its next port of call. (MDAT-GoG; Clearwater Dynamics)

NAVAL INTELLIGENCE

1. (U) GULF OF ADEN: On 1 December at 0932 UTC, an unidentified aerial object struck the water near a U.S.-flagged container ship while underway 80 NM south of Aden, Yemen, near position 11:32N – 044:38E. Between 30 November and 1 December, two U.S. Navy destroyers shot down six Huthi-launched munitions while escorting three U.S.-flagged vessels (the tanker Stena Impeccable, the container ship Maersk Saratoga, and the bulk carrier Liberty Grace) through the Gulf of Aden. As of 2 December, all three vessels were in port at Djibouti. (Clearwater Dynamics; Joint Maritime Information Center; Maritime Executive)
2. (U) SOMALIA: On 27 November, an unknown number of perpetrators boarded a Chinese fishing vessel while operating within territorial waters off Garmaal (exact position and time not specified). On 4 December (exact time not specified), an EUNAVFOR Spanish warship located the fishing vessel in the waters off Eyl and confirmed that the vessel was hijacked. The Spanish warship continues to monitor the situation. This incident may be fishing related. (IMB; Clearwater Dynamics)
3. (U) ARABIAN SEA: On 24 November at 0445 local time, a merchant vessel was approached by a dhow while underway approximately 204 NM northeast of Socotra, Yemen, near position 13:31N – 057:52E. The dhow approached to within 0.5 NM of the vessel at a speed of 6 knots. After the dhow did not respond to calls on VHF, the security team onboard the vessel fired signal flares, at which point the dhow changed course and passed within 1 NM of the vessel's stern. The vessel and crew were reported safe following the incident. (Clearwater Dynamics)
4. (U) GULF OF ADEN: On 21 November at 0330 UTC, 12 small boats repeatedly approached the Cayman Islands-flagged yacht Triple Seven while underway in the Gulf of Aden approximately 74 NM southwest of Aden, Yemen (exact position not specified). The approaches took place over the course of approximately 5 hours. One of the small boats came to within 1 NM of the yacht. In response to the approaches, the yacht increased speed and conducted evasive maneuvers. Following the incident, the vessel and crew were reported safe. (UKMTO; Clearwater Dynamics; Joint Maritime Information Center)
5. (U) RED SEA/GULF OF ADEN: On 17 November at 1613 UTC, a missile targeted the Panama-flagged bulk carrier Anadolu S while underway approximately 25 NM west of Mokha, Yemen (exact position not specified). The missile impacted the water near the stern of the vessel. On 18 November at 0958 UTC, another missile targeted the bulk carrier while underway approximately 60 NM southeast of Aden, Yemen. This missile also landed in the water near the vessel. After the incident, all crew were reported safe. The vessel proceeded to its next port of call. (UKMTO; Clearwater Dynamics; Joint Maritime Information Center)

NAVAL INTELLIGENCE

6. (U) RED SEA: On 12 November at 0001 UTC, multiple explosions occurred in close proximity to a Marshall Islands-flagged bulk carrier approximately 70 NM southwest of Hodeida, Yemen (exact position not specified). As many as six missiles exploded up to 6 NM from the vessel, with one missile exploding 2 NM off the port quarter. The vessel did not sustain any damage from the attack. Following the incident, the crew were reported safe and the vessel continued its voyage. (UKMTO; Clearwater Dynamics; Joint Maritime Information Center)
7. (U) GULF OF ADEN: On 9 November at 1807 UTC, an entity declaring itself to be the Yemeni authorities hailed the Panama-flagged bulk carrier S Line while underway approximately 57 NM southwest of Aden, Yemen (exact position not specified). The alleged Yemeni authorities hailed the master of the vessel over VHF and threatened to target the vessel if it transited north through the Bab el Mandeb Strait. When hailed, the vessel was underway with AIS on. After the VHF communication, the vessel's AIS was turned off, and, as of 9 November, the master was awaiting company guidance before proceeding to the next port of call. (UKMTO; Clearwater Dynamics; Joint Maritime Information Center)
8. (U) GULF OF ADEN: On 7 November at 0445 UTC, up to 15 small boats approached the Cayman Islands-flagged motor yacht Liquid Sky while underway approximately 53 NM southwest of Aden, Yemen. The crew of the small boats were armed, and at least one of the boats approached to within 0.3 NM of the yacht. Following the incident, the master reported that all crew were safe, and the vessel continued its voyage. (UKMTO; Clearwater Dynamics; Joint Maritime Information Center)
