4. (U) Monthly Incidents by Region

(U) This section lists reports of active violence against shipping, credible threats to shipping, or the potential for a situation to develop into a direct threat to shipping over the past 30 days. Every effort is made to ensure that incidents are not double-counted. In the event that double-counting is detected, or an incident is later found to be different than initially reported, an explanation of the cancellation of the inaccurate report will be made in at least one message prior to dropping the erroneous report.

A. (U) NORTH AMERICA:

1. (U) MEXICO: On 17 July, at about dawn, an unknown number of robbers boarded the Petroleos Mexicanos (PEMEX) satellite platform KUIL-B located in the Kuil field, Abkatun-Pol-Chuc in the Bay of Campeche, approximately 71 NM northeast of Puerto Dos Bocas. According to press reports, the perpetrators stole sets of self-contained breathing apparatus equipment, tools, pump, lamps, and cables. (vesseltracker.com; Poresto)

2. (U) MEXICO: On 16 July, at 2230 local time, five robbers armed with guns and knives boarded the Mexico-flagged offshore support vessel XICALANGO underway along the coast of Dos Bocas, 12 NM west of Puerto de Frontera, Centla, Tabasco, near position 18:40N – 092:55W. The perpetrators detained one of the crew members, and injured another on the left temple and by cutting the crew member's thumb with a knife. The robbers were looking for cash, but none was found. The robbers left with stolen equipment from the vessel. (Clearwater Dynamics; vesseltracker.com; Poresto).

3. (U) MEXICO: On 15 July, an unknown number of perpetrators boarded and robbed five PEMEX platforms in Cantarell Complex in the Bay of Campeche, approximately 45 NM northwest of Ciudad del Carmen. According to press reports, the identified platforms were the AKAL-M, AKAL-DB, AKAL-T, AKAL-TI, and SHIL-A. The platforms were unmanned during the hours of darkness when the boardings occurred. Reports indicate that the stolen items included 40 sets of self-contained breathing apparatus equipment, tools, pumps, pipes, and cables. The robberies were discovered by the duty crew when they arrived to work the following morning. (El Financiero; Milenio; Clearwater Dynamics)

4. (U) MEXICO: On 29 June, at 0330 local time, an unknown number of robbers armed with rifles boarded the PEMEX platform ICHALKIL-ALFA located approximately 27 NM from Ciudad del Carmen in the Bay of Campeche. According to press reports, the robbers stole tools, cables, and different communications equipment. (Riviera Maya News; htnewz; lodehoy Puebla; Aristegui)

5. (U) MEXICO: On 28 June, at 2245 local time, an unknown number of robbers boarded two PEMEX platforms, the AKAL CHARLY and the AKAL BRAVO NOVA, located in the Cantarell complex in the Bay of Campeche, approximately 45 NM northwest of Ciudad del Carmen. According to press reports, the robbers arrived at the offshore pumping complex onboard a motorized boat and fired several shots before boarding. The workers onboard sheltered in place while the robbers were onboard. The perpetrators stole equipment, tools, cables, and other items valued at several million Mexican pesos. (Riviera Maya News; htnewz; lodehoy Puebla; Aristegui)

B. (U) CENTRAL AMERICA – CARIBBEAN – SOUTH AMERICA:

1. (U) SAINT LUCIA: On 8 July, at 2000 local time, two robbers armed with guns boarded a catamaran yacht anchored in Canaries Bay, near position 13:54N – 061:04W. The yacht captain, who was sailing solo, made an overnight stopover in the bay for shelter. The perpetrators held the captain at gunpoint and demanded cash and valuables. The captain complied with the demands and the robbers departed after 45 minutes with cash, a tablet, and cell phone. The captain was reported safe and the yacht continued its voyage. (CSSN – Caribbean Safety and Security Net)

2. (U) PERU: On 23 June, at 0245 local time, three robbers armed with long knives boarded the Marshall Islands-flagged tanker EVERBRIGHT anchored in Callao Anchorage, near position 12:01S – 077:13W. The alarm was raised, and upon hearing the alarm, the robbers escaped with stolen ship's stores. The incident was reported to the local authorities. (vesseltracker.com; IMB; Clearwater Dynamics)

C. (U) ATLANTIC OCEAN AREA: No current incidents to report.

D. (U) NORTHERN EUROPE – BALTIC: No current incidents to report.

E. (U) MEDITERRANEAN – BLACK SEA:

1. (U) UKRAINE: On 7 July, the Moldova-flagged tanker MILLENNIAL SPIRIT was struck by a missile while unmanned and adrift in the Odessa region of the Black Sea. This is the second time that the tanker was hit. According to press reports, the tanker had been abandoned and drifting since 25 February when it was first hit. (Clearwater Dynamics; Splash 24/7; Fleetmon; Dryad Global)

2. (U) UKRAINE: Prior to 5 July, two bulk carriers, Liberia-flagged SMARTA and Panama-flagged BLUE STAR I, that had already berthed at the port of Mariupol were seized by the Russian-backed separatist group, Donetsk Peoples Republic (DPR). According to press reports, DPR representatives sent letters to the two shipping companies stating that their ships were subjected to "forcible appropriation of movable property with forced conversion into state property," offering no compensation. The two ships have been stranded at the port since 24 February 2022 and their crews were reportedly evacuated on or before 11 April 2022.
